CHRISTMAS

CHRISTMAS AT GRACELAND

Laurel, a Chicago-based business executive, travels to Memphis to close a deal to take-over the city's oldest family-owned bank. While she's in town, she bumps into her old flame Clay, a local music promoter with loftier aspirations. Though Laurel tries to stay focused on work, Clay pulls her back to the days when they were a performing duo on the brink of stardom. Laurel finds herself drawn to the City of Blues—and Clay—as she dreams of making music once again.
